Event Overview

A unique and inventive way to treat your teammates on your next away day, the Thriller Challenge gives participants the chance to learn the fully choreographed routine to one of the biggest pop songs in history.

Perfect for bringing new colleagues together, this activity allows participants to let their hair down and show off their abilities as you learn the moves and steps to the routine before the costume designers and makeup artists transform you into zombies for the final performance. When you're all finished up, everyone will go away from the event with a massive sense of achievement.

What Happens At Your Event?

On the day, your event will kick off with a short introduction from your dance instructor. They will explain how the activity will run before you start learning the basic moves and steps of this iconic dance routine.

During the class, participants will also have the option to go behind the scenes and help the costume and makeup designers re-create that terrifying zombie look, making this a particularly good event to consider if you're looking to incorporate some creative fun into your day.

At the end of the class, after learning all the moves and steps to the routine, it will be time for the final performance! With mood lighting, smoke effects and graveyard props to help set the scene, this is an experience that's both memorable and fully inclusive for everyone taking part.

What's Included?

- ✔ Decide whether you want to be a dancer, or work backstage on costumes and makeup
- ✔ Professional West End dance choreographers to lead your session, as well as a costume designer and makeup artist
- ✔ The choreographer will show everyone the moves
- ✔ Perform the terrifyingly thrilling routine in a grand finale performance
- ✔ Full risk assessments & £5million public liability insurance
