What Happens At Your Event?

On the day of your event, you and your team will get to make your way down to the lively city centre venue where your class will take place. Here, you will be met by a staff member before they bring you over to your designated area before meeting your bartender host.

Everyone will then get to choose what drink they want to make by choosing from a pre-set list. Your host will then briefly explain how the class will run whilst giving you some delicious cocktails to try out. Each person will then take it in turns to jump behind the bar to make their drinks, using muddlers, shakers and stirrers to bring their drinks to life.

When you're all finished up, you can stick around at the bar to sit and enjoy your drinks before cracking on with the rest of your evening.
