What happens at your event?

The event begins with an introduction from the chosen charity, giving your team a clear understanding of the cause they'll be supporting. After a chef tutor demonstrates the dishes, everyone splits into smaller groups and works together in a friendly cook-off, guided by professional facilitators. All ingredients, equipment, chef hats and aprons are provided, so teams can focus on cooking, collaborating and enjoying the challenge.

Once the cooking is complete, your team sits down to enjoy half of the dishes they've prepared, while the remaining meals are packaged and donated to the charity. The experience finishes with a closing presentation, prizes for the winning team and an impact report showing the difference your team's efforts have made.
