What happens at your event?

Once arriving at the pre-arranged venue (mobile also available), your team will be greeted by the host and instructed to put on their aprons. You'll be split into pairs where you'll share a chocolate melting pot and be shown by the host how to make your chocolate bars. Each person will make their very own dark, white & milk chocolate bars.

You will melt and pour liquid gold into moulds, adding your own toppings and flavours to the mix for some personalisation. Once the chocolate has set, you'll design and create your own chocolate bar wrappers!

Expect the activity to run up to 2 hours and if needed can be catered for vegans but we'll need to know in advance.
