What happens at your event?

Make your way down to the city centre venue where the class will take place. Here, you will be met by a staff member before they bring you over to your designated area and meet your bartender host. Everyone will then get to choose what drink they want to make from a pre-set list. Your host will explain how the class will run & hand out delicious cocktails to try.

Each person will then take it in turns to jump behind the bar to make their drinks, using muddlers, shakers and stirrers to bring their drinks to life. When you're all finished up, you can stick around at the bar to sit and enjoy your drinks before cracking on with the rest of your evening.
