Event Overview

A unique and exciting twist on the usual game of 5-a-side, electric shock football is a fantastic activity to consider for your next team building day if you're looking for an event that everyone can get stuck into and have a laugh with!

For this event, you and your colleagues will split up into separate teams to battle it out in a game of footy... except you'll all be rigged up with electric shock ankle tags for the duration of the match! With one member from the opposite team in control of your tags, scoring won't be as easy as you think with this hilarious activity.

What Happens At Your Event?

On the day of your event, you will make your way to your venue where you will meet your activity coordinator. They will briefly explain how the day will run before issuing each of you with your ankle tags. Then, after splitting up into separate teams, it'll be time to take to the pitch for your match.

During the event, one person from the opposite team will be in control of the other's ankle tags, with the option to shock whomever they want, whenever they want to! However, control of the tags will rotate between players, so if you need to get your own back on an opponent, you will get the opportunity to do just that before the end of the match!

What's Included?

- ✓ Experienced event manager to host your event
- ✓ 10 shock devices, bibs, footballs and venue all included
- ✓ Rotate between games and take a turn at shocking each other!
- ✓ Take part in a variety of mini games as well as a 5-a-side game
- ✓ Full risk assessments & £5million public liability insurance
- ✓ Well-kept and maintained equipment
