What happens at your event?

Enjoy an entirely self-run event that brings your crafty side out. You'll have the option to do either Ornament Painting, Ceramic Painting, Glass Painting or Wreath Making!

These will need to be decided at the time of ordering. Delivery is included in the price so it's the perfect activity if you want a budget-friendly option, and/or for different locations and remote workers.

Boxes are sent to the lead organiser's chosen address prior to the event date. Just make sure you're there to receive the delivery! The boxes contain all the tools and materials you need to craft your festive creation, plus a handy design guide to help give you inspiration and instruction along the way.

On the day, everyone can take some time out from their work day, come together and enjoy the experience collectively, sharing ideas and getting into the festive spirit. Since it's self-run, it can last as little or as long as you wish - enjoyed alone, or amongst other activities. Put on some Christmas tunes, and have some fun!

When all the painting and glueing is done, participants can take their proudly crafted items home with them and display them proudly somewhere in their home, or gift them to a loved one.
