What happens at your event?

On the day of your gameshow team building event, everything is already organised around your schedule—whether that's the recommended 9pm start or something that fits neatly around a meal or conference. If you're using your own venue, we transform the space with lighting, music and all the equipment needed; if not, our free venue-finding service secures a suitable location in advance. As guests arrive, the host welcomes everyone and sets the tone for the evening before giving a brief explanation of how the games work, how teams will be formed and what prizes are up for grabs.

Once the show begins, teams move through a mix of lively rounds inspired by classic TV game shows. Music challenges, guessing games and fast reaction rounds keep everyone involved, while occasional surprises or bonus twists add extra excitement. The host keeps the pace fun and engaging, ensuring that even the quieter participants are drawn into the action. As the event builds to its finale, scores are counted and the competition becomes more light-heartedly intense, ending with the announcement of the winning team and a celebratory prize moment.

After the closing remarks and final laughs, guests head off energised and connected, while our team handles all pack-down quickly and discreetly. The result is a smooth, entertaining and completely hassle-free experience from start to finish.
