What happens at your event?

The event comes to your venue. All the equipment, tools and resources will all be laid out ready for you to use, right after the event co-ordinator welcomes everyone and explains how the event will work, immerse you in the plot and teach you real techniques that modern-day Police use to crack cases. The event itself has been designed by real ex-Scotland Yard Detectives, so you can count on the event being realistic and engaging.

You'll be split into small teams where each needs to decipher clues and examine items to discover where and how to save the CEO. There'll be hands-on forensic tasks as well as going out into the field to track an informant who will help deliver vital intel.

The winning team will receive prizes at the end of the activity.
