What happens at your event?

Upon arriving at the sports venue, your group will be introduced to the co-ordinator who will explain the rules of the event and split participants into small teams.

You'll get involved in a multitude of entertaining but intense and competitive games such as races and field games as well as test of strength like javelin and tug of war! All fitness levels are catered for in these activities, so everyone may take part and prove they all have an inner Olympian.

The event will end in true Olympics style with everyone coming together for a closing ceremony. Winning teams will be announced, after which they will step up to their podiums to claim their bragging rights!

Types of games you'll play...

TUG OF WAR

A classic battle of strength - With two teams grabbing either end of a giant rope, the team that pulls the rope past the marker are the winners.

DODGEBALL

The simple but fun American sport where you'll score points by hitting the other team with soft balls. Just remember to dodge!

HOCKEY

Grab your sticks and whack tennis balls into the opponent's goals. Tackle your foes to steal the ball and take control before they score into the net!

SACK RACE

This classic schoolyard favourite sees you climbing into your sacks, in a frantic race of hopping and jumping to the finish line!

But that's not all! Other games include - Skipping Race, Archery, Axe Throwing, Volleyball, Caterpillar Race, Pony Race and many more...
