

Time to hop on those broomsticks and fly away before the giant gets back on his feet! As Team Captain, you'll need to snap a photo of one or more of your team on broomsticks in mid-air.

If you can't find a broomstick, get creative!

What happens at your event?

To start the day off, everyone will download the bespoke game app on their phones. If you've opted for a remote facilitator, they will join you for a brief rundown on how the day will go and explain the theme/backstory before splitting you up into small teams of 4-6.

You'll make your way to GPS hotspots around the area where teams will be faced with interactive photo and video challenges, trivia questions and more in a bid to solve the mystery, escape and win as many points as you can.

When your time is up, teams will come back together for a 15-minute wrap-up session, detailing who managed to escape, who scored the highest and which team are the overall winners of the day!
