What happens at your event?

To begin the activity, everyone will download the bespoke game app on their phones which they will use throughout the day to take part in the activity. If you've opted for a remote facilitator, they will join you for a short briefing explaining how the activity will run before you split off into smaller teams of 4-6 people.

After naming your team and submitting selfies, you'll open the interactive map and make your way to each hotspot, tackling questions and challenges at each. Teams will need to bring out their trivia knowledge and creativity as they take on categories, from countries to celebrities, movie trivia to sports. At the end of the activity, everyone will make their way back to your meeting point before the highest scorers on the leaderboard are crowned the overall winners of the day.
